

64th Aggressor Book Feature 'Bandits of the Mojave'

Gomers, both present & past,

The long awaited Aggressor Book Feature is finished and ready for consumption!

I placed the original draft on the ops desk just in case you didn't see it on the first round. The final product will be of similar quality, but has some different pictures/content after final edits. You should be able to view final version at this link.

The books are offered at special Gomer price of $50 (Original quote from Shutterfly was $122/book...), and only the first 50 are of the high quality, so I recommend ordering early (51+ reduce in paper quality and book construction).

If you would like to order your very own, here is how:

1. E-mail the author, Kedar Karmarkar, and let him know that you are interested in purchasing a book(s)
2. Pay author via PayPal using the e-mail ID no1mahairsqn@gmail.com
3. Receive your book during the lunch break (1130-1330) of Day 1 (22 Jan) of the inaugural Aggressor Conference and have it signed by the author (if desired)
4. Be the envy of everyone that doesn't have a "Bandits of the Mojave" Aggressor book feature

Questions? E-mail Mr. Karmarkar directly at Kedark.photography@gmail.com
